And Now for May Flowers and Sunshine and Gladness
And now baby will see for the first time so many things, the green trees and grass, the blue sky, and hear the birds sing. But baby should have a Heywood-wakefield Carriage so that his little growing body will not tire. He must be comfortable, otherwise he will become fretful and of course a fretful baby is soon a sick baby. Won't you let us show you the whole line of Heywood-wakefield Carriages? They will please you in both appearance and price.

A real blessing in the Home.

Of course you want first of all a refrigerator that insures food that is fresh and appetizing, no matter how high the thermometer mounts.

You get this—with wonderful economy of ice—in the AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATOR. But that is only half of what you get. In addition, it takes perfect care of your drinking water in its built-in, one-piece, odor-proof porcelain-lined water cooler, that requires no extra ice. Don't miss seeing the AUTOMATIC before you buy a refrigerator.

FARM BUREAU MEETING FINE

Between Forty and Fifty Farmers Discuss Various Topics and Ask Questions.

Between forty and fifty farmers attended a most interesting meeting of the county farm bureau in the court house here Saturday afternoon, which was addressed by W. D. Zinn, county agent, in an able manner and the farmers themselves asked many questions and discussed various subjects freely. It was pronounced among the best meetings the bureau has had since its organization.

The county agent addressed a splendid meeting at Jarvisville Tuesday night, which was largely attended. Wednesday night he spoke at a similar meeting at Good Hope. During the week, he visited twenty-five farms. He found the farmers somewhat discouraged over weather conditions, but all preparing to plant large acreages of crops, if possible.

Friday he weighed four cattle on the P. B. Davidson farm, which he had weighed just four weeks previous and he found that their weight averaged fifty-five pounds more, two of them having put on 150 pounds in the four weeks. The Davidson cattle are still being fed silage in the barn and they were not to be turned out to graze until May 10, as Mr. Davidson believes in letting the grass get a good start so that he can pasture not only more cattle, but pasture them much better also. This is an innovation in the method of handling cattle in the county and the results will be watched. If the method proves a success, it will mean that at least a half more cattle can be grazed on Harrison county farms and it will also mean hundreds of thousands of dollars of increased income to the farmers.

Mr. Zinn will speak at McWhorter Tuesday night, at Johnstown, Wednesday night and at Rockford Thursday night. The usual Saturday meeting will be held here. He is constantly enrolling demonstrators, a partial list of which is as follows:

IS ACQUIRED.

A. G. Ledbetter, a negro, was acquitted Saturday night in Magistrate R. Edward Kidd's court on a charge of violating the anti-weapon law by carrying a pistol Wednesday night when it was alleged he shot into a house on Hewes street near the Waldo occupied by colored people. It could not be proved that he had a pistol.

MORRIS IS IDEAL AS A PROSECUTOR

And His Candidacy is Urged by Many Voters Who Appreciate That Fact.

Will E. Morris.

Will E. Morris, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney, has been so busily engaged in the trials of cases in the criminal court that he has had little time to devote to the campaign; but the March term of court having ended, Mr. Morris will at once take up his canvass, and will see personally just as many voters of the county as possible before the June primary.

While Mr. Morris will conduct a vigorous campaign for the office, yet he is in no sense a voluntary candidate for prosecuting attorney, for the reason that he entered the race at the urgent request of many of the very best citizens of the county, who as grand jurors, petit jurors, witnesses and other citizens interested in a vigorous, but intelligent and fair enforcement of the law turned instinctively to Mr. Morris as a lawyer known to them to be of the capacity, integrity and experience so much needed at this particular time in that office.

It is no disparagement to his brother lawyers to say that Will Morris is really the master of them all in the field of criminal law, and as a former prosecuting attorney or Harrison county he made a record for vigorous and economical prosecutions of the law for cases against violators that won for him the name of being the best prosecutor the county ever had. With the enormous expense to the taxpayers and the great consumption of the time of busy men as jurors, auditors and witnesses that our criminal court is reaching, and the stubborn defense to criminal cases being made by attorneys of our local bar which is recognized as of the best in the country, it is most important that the state should have the very best lawyer available as its prosecuting attorney of our great county. These are days when merit and efficiency count for most in all fields of endeavor, and in the candidacy of Will Morris for prosecuting attorney we have offered us a lawyer not only of unusual experience in criminal law and procedure, trained and of achievement, but as well a man of proved integrity and unimpeachable reputation.

GOOD ROADS BODY ADOPTS ITS CODE AT MEETING HERE

Elects Its Treasurer and Discusses a Few Questions of Importance.

The Harrison County Good Roads Association organized here a week ago, held a second meeting Saturday afternoon in the court house and adopted a constitution and by-laws. The meeting was presided over by Laco L. Young, president, and George W. Dudderar, secretary, kept a record of the proceedings. Others in attendance were Philander K. Stout, of Simpson district; Charles P. Hood, of Clay district; H. J. Burnside, of Union district; James F. Allen, of Coal district; Alvin D. Bassel, of Grant district; J. D. Picken, of Elk district; and Guy M. Harbert, of Eagle district.

Guy M. Harbert was elected treasurer.

How to complete the membership was discussed at length and it is provided in the constitution that there shall be five accredited members from every magisterial district and as many more as wish to join.

How to finance roads was also discussed but no conclusion was reached. This subject will be given further study.

The association will meet again at 1:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the board of trade rooms in the Union Bank building.

The constitution and by-laws adopted are as follows:

Article I—Name.
This association shall be known as the Harrison County Good Roads Association.

Article II—Purpose.
The purpose for which this association is organized is to promote a greater interest in the movement for better roads in Harrison county to help disseminate information and literature bearing upon the subject of road improvement; to promote a closer educational, religious and social intercourse; to assist in developing the agricultural, horticultural, mineral and industrial resources of the county by helping to secure better highways; and to assist the county and district officials in highway construction and maintenance, and to help secure the most economical expenditure of the road funds of the county; to assist the state organization in a campaign of education for better roads and to co-operate with any and all other organizations which have for their purpose the uplift of the community and the advancement of the citizenship of our county and state by making home life more comfortable, prosperous and happy.

Article III—Officers.
The officers of this association shall be: President, vice president at large, secretary, treasurer and one chairman from each magisterial district in the county, who form the executive council of the organization.

Article IV—Duties of Officials.
President.
Section 1. It shall be the duty of the president to preside at all meetings, to call special meetings whenever the good of the people demands, to advise with the other officials of the organization of the county and state, and to appoint any and all committees, delegates and representatives as directed from time to time by the association.

Secretary.
Section 2. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a record of this association, and to keep accurate minutes of the meetings and a record of the general transactions of the organization.

Treasurer.
Section 3. The treasurer shall have charge of any and all funds belonging to this association; shall keep a record of all finances and shall pay orders drawn upon the treasurer by the secretary and countersigned by the president and authorized for the good of the association; and shall report annually a complete statement of the financial conditions, which shall be recorded by the secretary as a part of the minutes, after being audited and passed upon by the association.

Accepts Position.
S. J. Newell, of Ravenswood, has accepted a position as foreman at the Record office.

To Vote on Bond Issue.
McClellan district is preparing to vote June 13 on a $200,000 bond issue for permanent road improvement.

Ford Dead.
Richard Ford, an aged and highly respected citizen of Morgan's Run, died Wednesday after a brief illness. He is survived by a wife and three daughters, Mrs. Levi Cottrell and shall preside at all meetings in the absence of the president.

Executive Council.

Section 5. The executive council shall meet whenever the good of the association demands; shall assist in devising ways and means to improve the roads in the several magisterial districts and shall confer with the county officials and assist the county court and county road engineer and district officers whenever conditions require, and shall also confer with the county and district officials in securing results at any special road day movements. The executive council may appoint sub-committees and separate divisions for working purposes. Five members of the executive council shall constitute a quorum.

Article 5—Meetings.
Regular meetings shall be held on the first Monday of January and July of each year at the court house. Special meetings may be held at any time upon the call of the president or of a majority of the executive council by giving at least five days' notice. Officers and district chairmen to be elected at the January meeting.

Article VI—Membership.
Every citizen of Harrison county interested in good roads may consider himself a member of the association. Each district to be represented in the active working of the association by a committee of five; chairman of this committee to be elected at the annual meeting and to be a member of the executive council, the remaining four to be selected in such manner as the chairman and the citizens of the respective district may elect.

Article VII—Representatives.
a) The editors of all newspapers in Harrison county shall compose the Board of Publication of this association.

b) The president, secretary and treasurer shall compose a business committee, which shall pass upon and pay the bills of the association, and pay the bills of the association.

Article VIII—Rules.
In all meetings Robert's Rules of Order shall be the guide to parliamentary procedure.
